Passion Made Possible: A Celebration of Singapore's Spirit

HELIIX BRIDGE

Launched in 2017 by the STB and Singapore Economic Development Board, the Passion Made Possible destination brand embodies Singapore's unique mindset and attitude. It celebrates a passion-driven, never-settling spirit of determination and innovation, always pursuing new possibilities and reinvention. This brand positions Singapore as a dynamic destination that inspires people to turn their passions into reality.

Made in Singapore: The Next Chapter in Travel Inspiration Made in Singapore is STB's latest global campaign aimed at inspiring travellers to choose Singapore as their next travel destination. This campaign reinvents the Passion Made Possible brand, showcasing quintessential Singapore experiences—from iconic attractions to hidden gems. It highlights how ordinary moments in Singapore are transformed into extraordinary experiences, keeping Singapore top of mind for travellers across the globe.

The Made in Singapore campaign positions the country as an inspiring City in Nature destination that is vibrant, cosmopolitan, and deeply rooted in its rich multicultural heritage. By spotlighting Singapore's key attributes, the campaign seeks to resonate with diverse traveller profiles and reinforce Singapore's appeal as a must-visit destination.

To build emotional affinity and inspire travel, the Made in Singapore campaign adopts a bolder and more playful approach. It conveys the essence of Singapore as a place where a twist on the familiar creates a holiday filled with wonder. For instance, visitors can experience "forest bathing" in the unexpected setting of Singapore's lush urban landscape, showcasing the country's ability to surprise and delight at every turn.

With Passion Made Possible and Made in Singapore, STB continues to redefine how Singapore connects with the travellers, inspiring them to experience a destination where possibilities are endless, and moments are unforgettable.
